About Rena

Today, as part of the Neopost family of companies, Rena offers the industry's most comprehensive family of high-tech inkjet printers and labelers, and tabbers for every size mailer. All Rena products are designed, engineered & manufactured here in the USA with the primary focus still on providing the highest quality products on the market.

More than simply addressing systems, today's products are Envelope Imaging Systems - printing the return address, company logos, taglines, the postal indicia, and the barcoded address. Complementing the addressing equipment, Rena provides a complete line of mailpiece design, address management, postal presort, and ZIP+4 encoding software products.

Rena products are marketed through a national distribution network of nearly 200 authorized dealers. These dealers specialize in office equipment and products for the mailing industry.
